

PHOENIX RECOVERY PROGRAMS

rising from the ashes

Welcome to Phoenix Recovery Programs

Phoenix Recovery Programs is a private, non-profit adolescent residential treatment facility providing services for chemical dependency and mental health needs. We operate on a 90-day, progress based model, which means that while 90 days is the average stay, some clients may need more time depending on their individual situation.

Clients will participate in multiple group therapy sessions on a variety of topics weekly, as well as individual counseling with a Licensed Alcohol and Drug Counselor, and individual therapy with a licensed Mental Health Professional. Clients will also work towards completing their high school education at Phoenix Academy, our on-site recovery-based school. At Phoenix, we place a large emphasis on family programming. Clients' families are required to participate in a weekly family education group as well as individual family sessions once weekly for one hour, and attend an al-anon meeting weekly.
